The Grier School

Pineneedle

1977

As we venture out of the gates of Grier, we shall always remember the unyielding kindness you have shown us, the honesty and truth
you have taught us, the faith and confidence you saw in us, but most of all your outstretched hand, in times of sorrow and happiness.
We have learned,
and we have grown.

With love, We dedicate the 1977 Pineneedle
to Rebecca Brownlee

The Grier Family: Dr. Douglas Grier, Harriet Grier, and Geoffry Grier

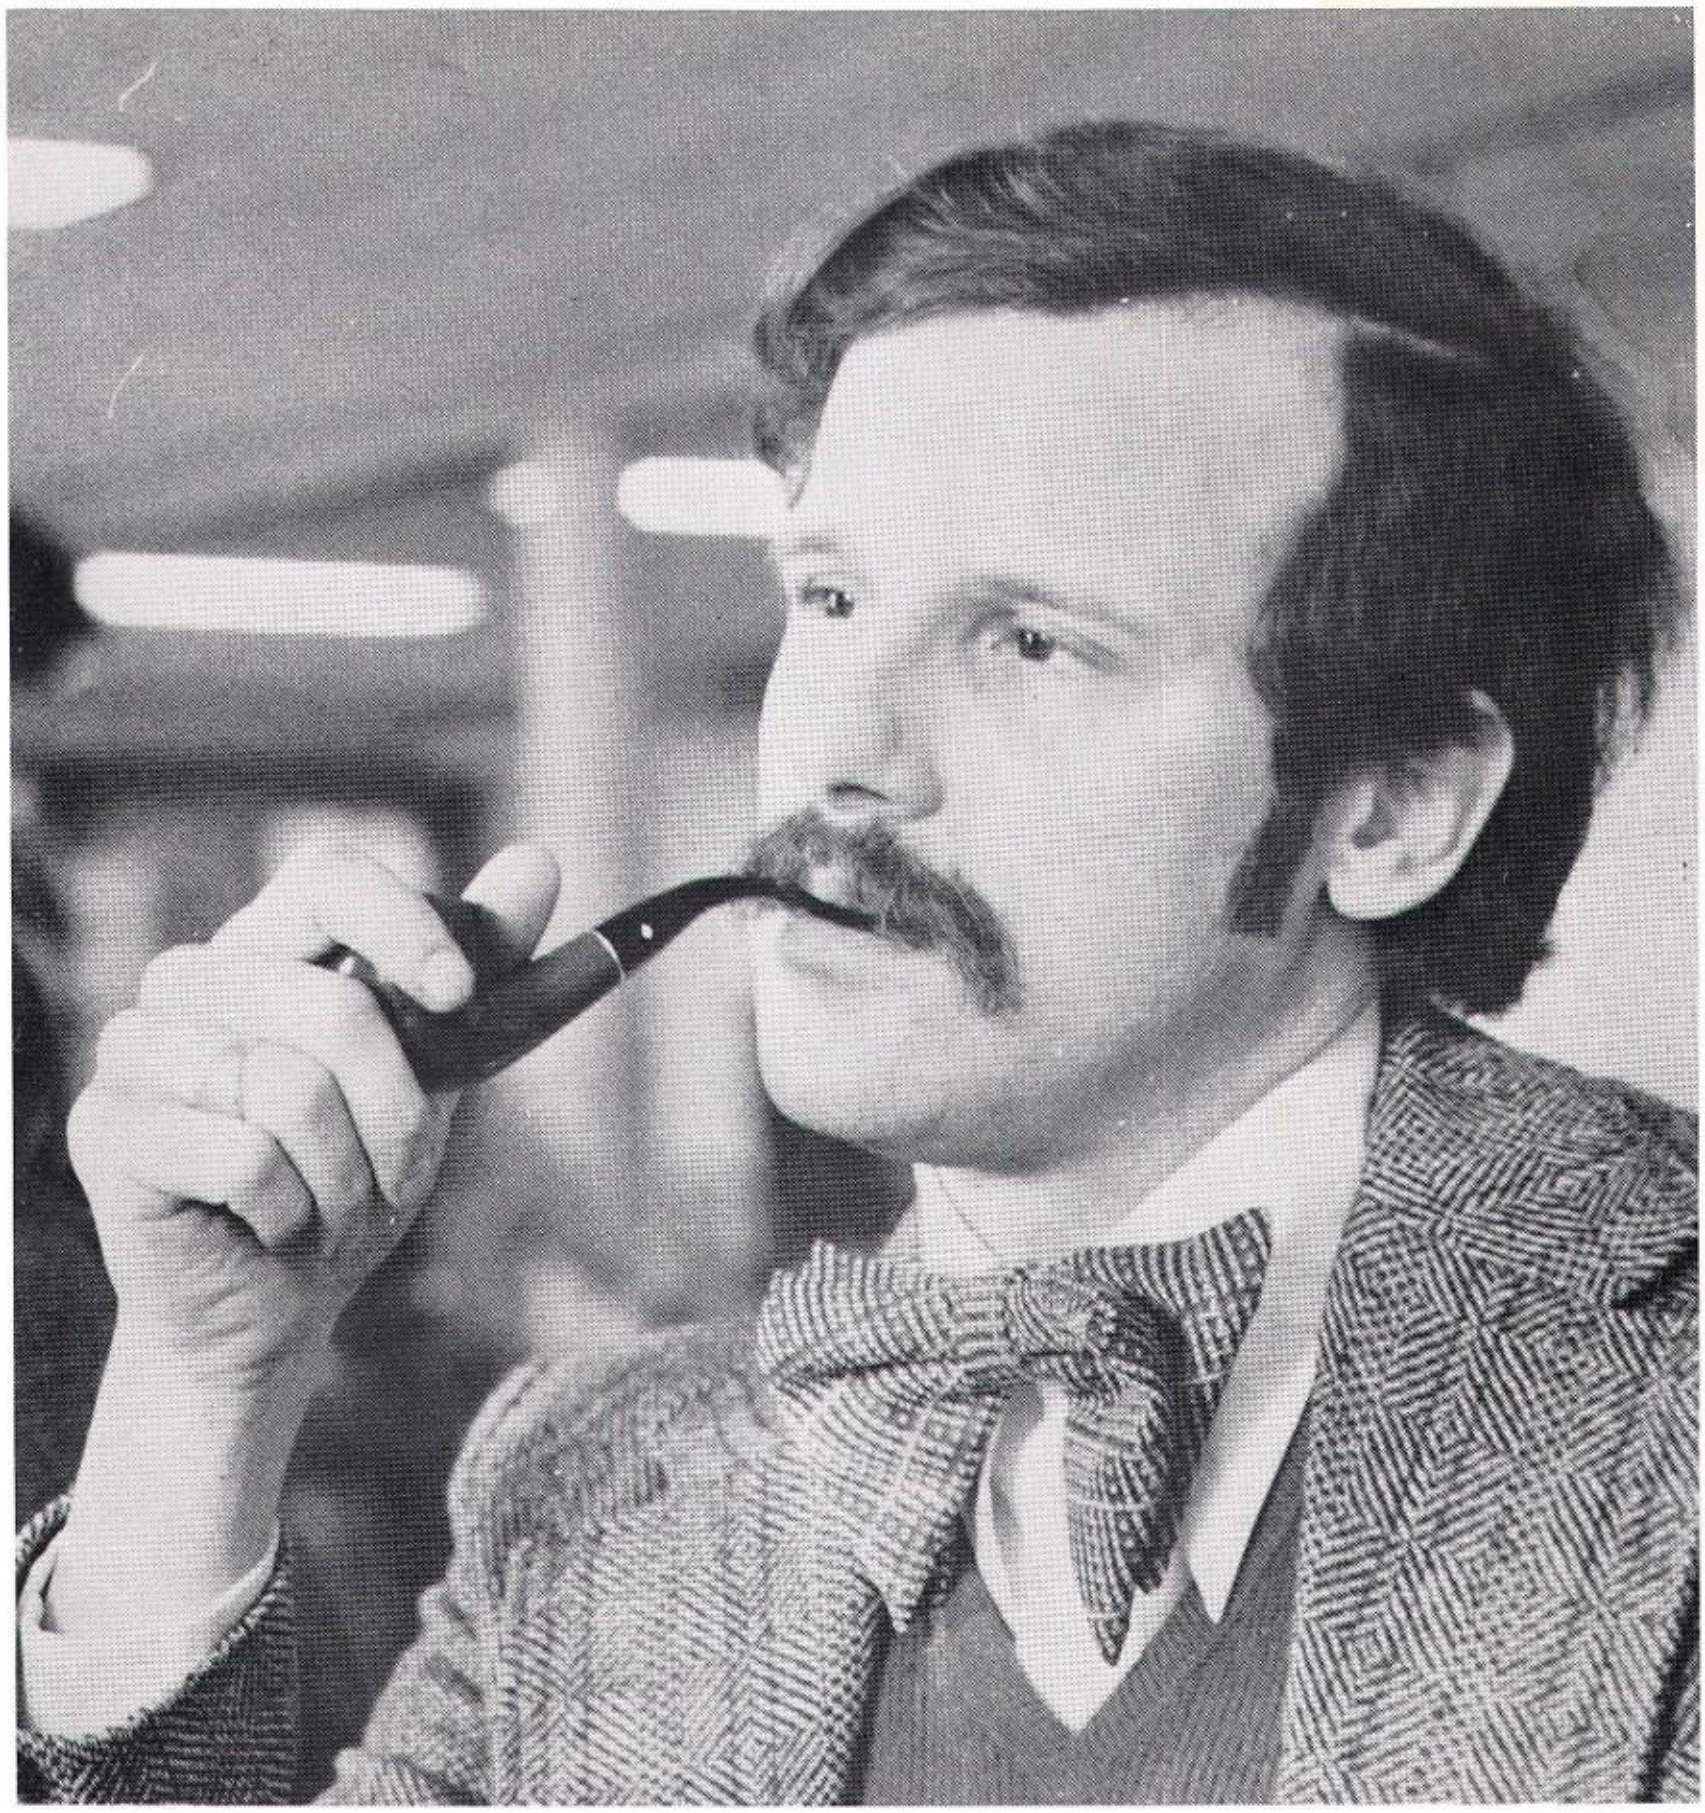
If the future can be defined as a series of moving targets, how has your Grier experience equipped your aim? At its best, a boarding school can't give you the answers to life's puzzles, but it should help you sharpen your capacities for coping.

Your system of values will probably be the most influential factor in determining how you make the many decisions that will confront you from here on out–in your careers, your marriages, and the ways you choose to seek happiness.

And the class of 1977 as a whole comes closer to sharing the ideal values preached by schools like Grier than any other graduating class I've had the pleasure of knowing. Herein lies your greatest contribution to your school–we are a better place because of you.

You have earned our deepest respect and appreciation–and our sincere wishes for every success as you meet with life's many challenges and opportunities.

Dr. Douglas A. Grier



1976-77 has been one of the most productive and enjoyable years in recent Grier history, and we thank you, the graduating class, for your outstanding contribution in making it such a fine year. As leaders, you have helped to implement constructive changes at Grier, and as counselors, you have served the school with maturity and optimism. Our genuine confidence in your future success and happiness is based on the quality of your achievement here. Good luck to each of you.

Raymond Kelly
Assistant Headmaster

Ladies and Gentlemen, we would like to introduce to you the graduating class of 1977 . . .

"Let there be such oneness between you that when one cries the other will taste salt."

Tracey O'Reilly

"True courage is not in the balloon for rising; But the parachute for falling."

Ann Bucy

"In becoming part of someone else You lose yourself and that's the very least that happens."

Kim Old

"To give a love, you gotta live a love.
To live a love, you gotta be part of.
When will I see you again?"

Beth Ford

"Memories don't die, But with time they grow hazy."

Ellis Hansen

"Being myself includes taking risks with myself, taking risks in new behavior, trying new ways of being myself so that I can see how it is I want to be."

Dhamelis Bustamante

"If I leave here tomorrow
Would you still remember me?
I must be traveling on now Cause there's too many places I've got too see.
If I stay here with you, now Things just couldn't be the same Because I'm as free as a bird now And this you'll never change."

Nina Rosse'

carved a name. I carved a day.
was my thought and way of saying goodbye.
left while the sun was starting nowing that I might never come back.
nd yet part of me must stay orever among the dunes.
carved a name. I felt the grief of leaving.
carved a day, and I was gone."

Liz Abbey

"There are no words to express love so we who really love love in silence."

Dandy Hall

"So it's time to change our ways, But, I've loved these days!"

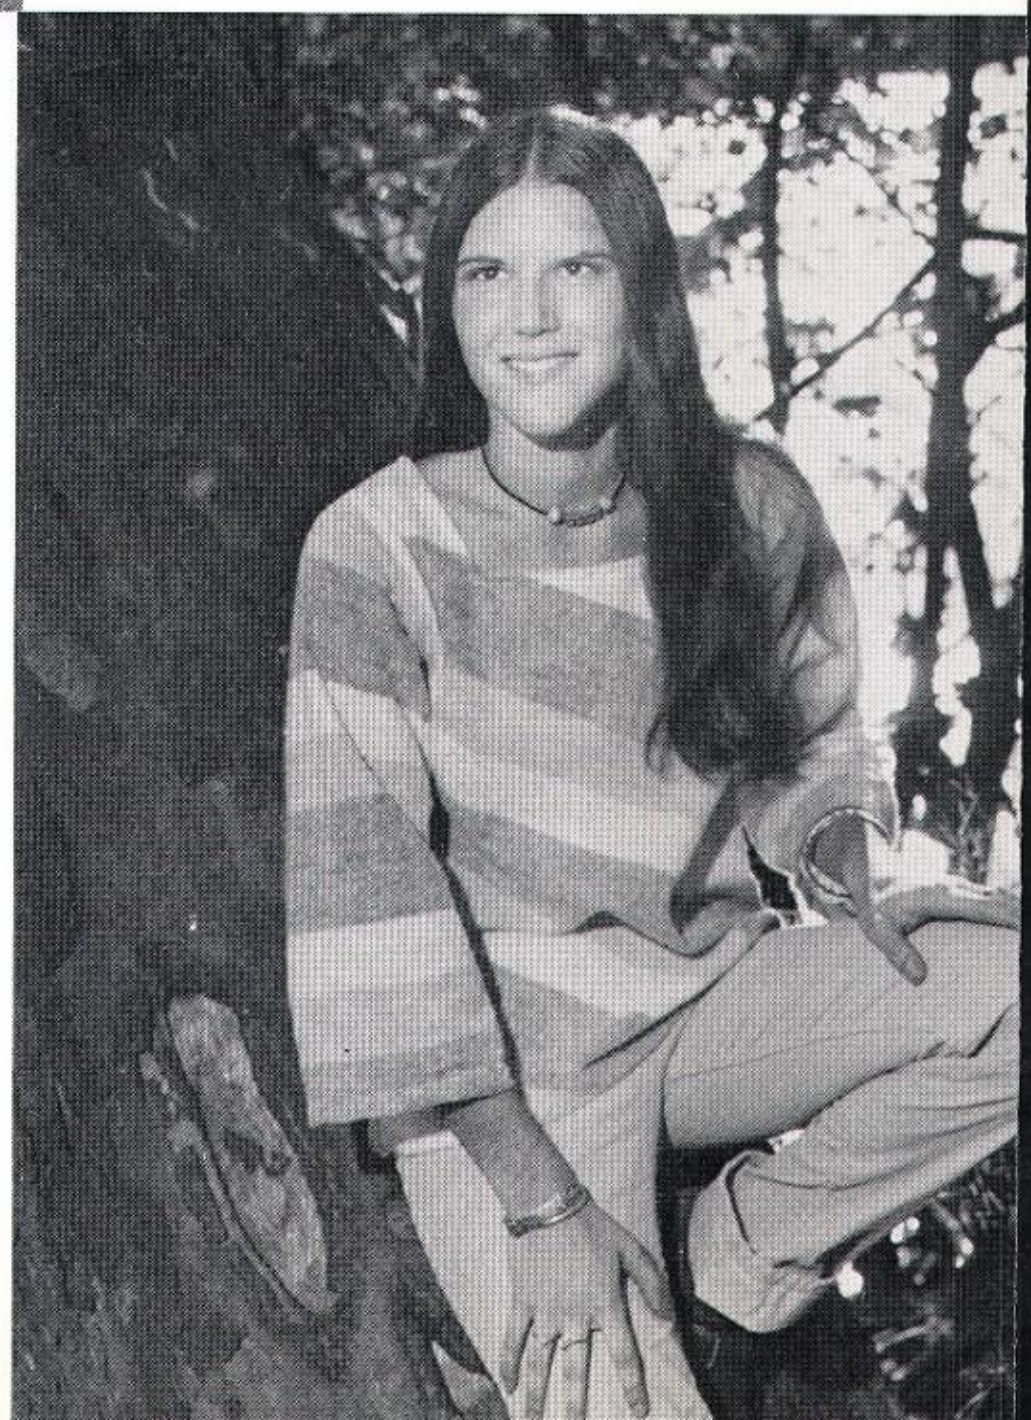
Anne Smyth



"If a man does not keep peace
With his companions Perhaps it is because he hears
A different drummer
Let him step to the music he hears However measured or far away."

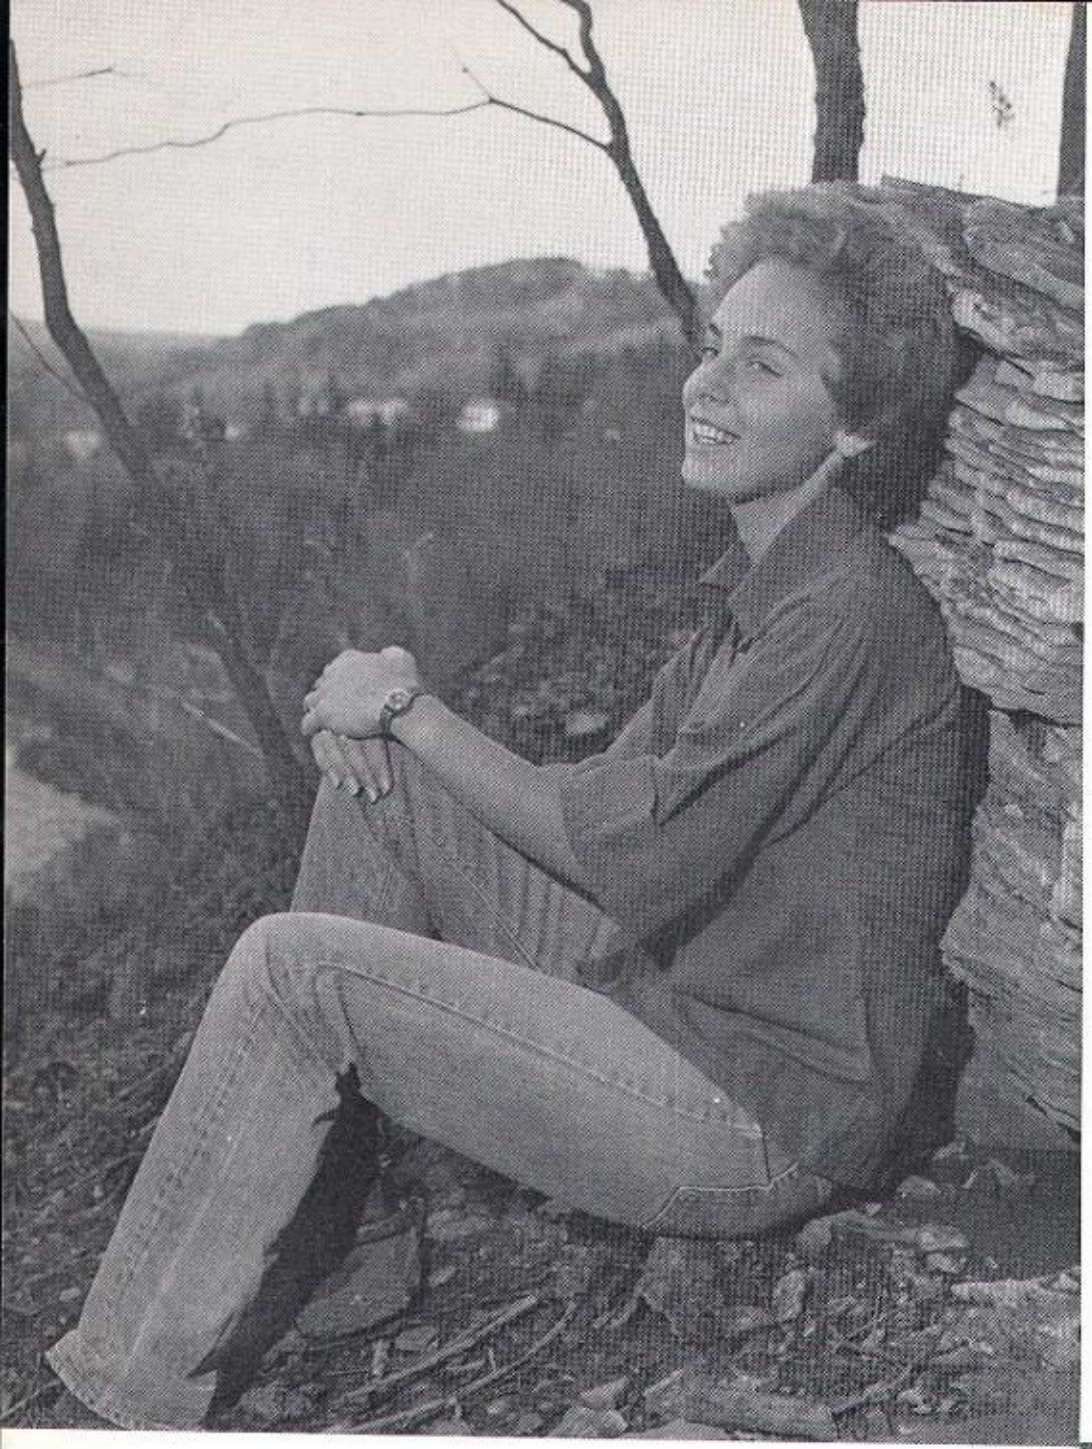
Mary Gerwin

"The rainbow is more beautiful than the pot at the end of it, because the rainbow is now. And the pot never turns out to be quite what I expected."

Mo Ryan



"But cruel are the times,
When we are traitors
And do no know ourselves;
When we hold rumor
From what we fear,
Yet know not what we fear,
But float upon a violent sea
Each way and move.
I take my leave of you.
Shall not be long but I'll be here again.
Things at the worst will cease,
Or else climb upward
To what they were before."

Barbie Jago

"Let the winds come singing here.
Let the clouds with rainbows great and most comfortably embrace the people of my life, the ones who own my heart.
And let us . . . each one wish one another well."

Sue Santangelo

"What, me worry?"

Ann Bailey

"I wish those days could come back once more why did those days ever have to go I love them so."

Karen Morrow

"ANTICIPATION"

Emily O'Neil

"Sometimes, not often enough, we reflect upon the good things, and those thoughts always center around those we love and I think about those people who mean so much to me and for so many years have made me so very happy, and I count the times I have forgotten to say thank you and just how much I love them . . ."

Astrid Degwitz

"There is no greater joy than the smile of a friend.
For the love of my friends is the light of my soul."

Jeannie Cordero

"Two things upon this changing earth can neither change nor end . . . The love of friend for friend."

Arlene Padgett

"I don't like the way the cards are Shuffled
But yet I like the game and want to play And through the long night will I, unshuffled,
Play what I get until the break of day."

Mari Wada

"Life is either a daring adventure Or nothing."

Armineh Ordoukhanian

"These are the Good Old Days."
Cathy Phillips

"The only thing that matters is your attitude."

Marcy Campbell

"Today I think I'll come back to this place
This, that is my place
And live surrounded by my comrades.
Yesterday it rained and I was discontented And tomorrow the sky may be another color But today I think I will come back . . .
Yes, I think that I will come back."

Kammy Tribus

"Face it. Curiosity will not cause us to die– only lack of it will.
Never to want to see the other side of the hill or that improbable country where living is an idyll (although a probable hell) would kill us all.
Only the curious have, if they live, a tale worth telling at all."

Vernie Singleton

"Gone are the days we stopped to decide where we should go, we just ride Gone are the broken eyes we saw thru dreams Gone, both dream and lie."

Pat Wheatly

"Well I've had my share of broken dreams and more than a couple of falls and in chasing what I thought were moonbeams I have run into a couple of walls.
But in looking back at places I've been and the changes I've left behind I just look at myself to find I've learned the hard way every time."

Mary Bruel

"It was here that I learned, the games of life
To give what I have.
Be the best that I can,
To see People
For what they are, through my own eyes.
I gave what I took
In my love for others.
I care for you all,
For you are my sisters."

Peggy Parsons

"Those that don't understand their past, are doomed to repeat it."

Wendy Zacher

YESTERDAY

ne years have past and come and gone yet all we have are memories. The days e fast come each dawn yet all we have are memories. In no life can we live again moments past in time. The feelings go far too deep to express in simple rhyme.
memories of an understanding friend will strenghten me through the years.

FROM THE MILLERS

Julie and Ann:
There is something in having a friend
Kind of like the cozy feeling you get in front of a warm fire,
And you never want to leave the warmth
But you know that you'll have to get up and walk away
So you try to absorb that feeling to keep it forever
Like the memories of a good friend.

Love, Kammy

But of all these friends and lovers

There is no one compares to you

And these memories

lose their meanings

When I think of love

as something new

Though I know

I'll never lose affection

For people and things that came before

I know I'll often think about them,

In my life,

I love you more.

"You just call out my name and you know wherever I am,

I'll come runnin'

to see you again.

Winter, Spring, Summer or Fall, all you have to do is call,

And I'll be there –

you've got a friend."

I Love you,

Every time we say hello to some new encounter we're on our way toward goodbye.
Some distance from the actual phrase but moving toward it all the same.
The distance between those two words becomes a little less as we grow older.
Be aware then that tomorrow is only tomorrow.
There is nothing to fear except the coming of another day.

Thanks for your friendship . . .

I love you,

Everybody, but especially the Puda Sisters,

Thanks for everything—friendship, love, encouragement and knowledge . . .

"And our choices were few and the thought never hit that the one road we travelled would ever shatter or split."

Music makes pictures and often tells stories
All of it magic and all of it true
And all of the pictures and all of the stories And all of the magic, the music is you.

All my love,
Mary (& Ralph)

Emily, Cathy, Marcy, Beth, Beetle
& the Puda Sisters,

And it goes on and on,
Watching the river run,
Further and further from things that we've done, Leaving them one by one,
And we have just begun
Watching the river run,
Listening, learning and yearning Run, river, run.

Thank you for everything. Good friends are Forever!

I love you all,

Barbie (Julie)

oomer, Irene, Sarah, Kagan and Beth,

I wish you hope
When things are going bad.
A kind word
When times are sad.
I wish you shelter
From the raging winds.
I wish you peace
When times are hard,
A light to guide you through the dark.
And when storms are high,
And your dreams are low,
I wish you the strength to let love grow.
Always remember . . .
I love you,

Barbie

To Tracey, Mary, Mo, Linda, and Barbie . . .
I'll miss talking with you and laughing with you and sharing the moments that make being with you so special.
Take care my friend because there's something all wrong with a day when you're not here . . .
Something is missing . . . and in spite of myself, I listen for your laugh and watch for your face in the crowd.
Take care my friend because I can't help thinking how lonely it is without you and how nice it would be to have you here.
But most of all take care, because you matter so much to me!
All my love,
Sue.

To Ann . . .
Under the cover of the stars
Under the cover of the sun Fermented into eternity there lies a precious moment of time called life.

CONGRATULATIONS

TO DANDY
AND HER MANY FRIENDS AT GRIER

The pensive girl who sits and dreams
"My life, what shall it be?
Like waves that beat upon the shore Shall strength be waste in me?

"Or shall the God who gave me life,
So bounteous and benign, Look down upon the things I've done
And smile because they're mine?"

He'll smile, I'm sure, fine girl of ours, If dreams you hold so dear Come true because you worked at them Each day, each month, each year.

Your dreams will change and so will you But always to your self be true.

TODAY!

With every rising sun
Think of your life as just begun.
The past has cancelled and buried deep All yesterdays. There let them sleep.
Concern yourself with but today.
Grasp it and teach it to obey Your will and plan. Since time began Today has been the friend of man.
You and today! A soul sublime
And the great heritage of time.
With God himself to bind the twain, Go forth, brave heart! Attain! Attain!

s we venture from the gates of Grier encompassing a whole new world, we hold in our memories the er different times passed within the ivy walls. We remember the trying times when we each felt so one; we remember the joyous times when we each wanted to share our gaiety with all; we remember e united times when we each felt part of a whole. We are no longer a part of Grier, yet, Grier will ways be a part of each one of us.
